

— ACCES —

With access to France and Italy, Martigny is a charming town of 20'000 inhabitants located at a large bend in the River Rhône..

BY PLANE

From Geneva, Bern, Bâle-Mulhouse and Zurich-Kloten airports. Charter and private flights from Sion airport.

BY CAR

- Via the A9 motorway from Lausanne or Sierre, exit Martigny Fully (no. 21) or by the main cantonal road.
- Via routes open all year: Forclaz Pass, Gd-St-Bernard Tunnel, Simplon Pass.
- Following passes open only in summer: Gd-St-Bernard, Nufenen, Grimsel, Furka.
- Using rail tunnels where trains transport vehicles: Lötschberg, Furka and Simplon.

BY RAIL

- Trains from every Swiss town.
- Fast train from Milan.
- TGV des Neiges (High-speed train in winter) from Paris (December to April).

